

Metropolitan European Transport Limited

MET Deutschland GmbH
Formerstrasse 47
40878 Ratingen
Deutschland

Press release : Pressemitteilung

1 July 2016

MET wins further contracts in Frankfurt and Koblenz

Bus group MET has renewed its contract with the regional transport authority, RMV, to operate suburban services in and around the Frankfurt town of Hanau for a further eight years. From 11 December 2016, MET will operate six new buses on an orbital express route as well as local bus services in the towns of Hanau, Maintal and Obertshausen.

In addition, from August 2016, MET will operate two buses on new services in Gering and Koblenz on behalf of local bus operator, ORN.

David Leeder, MET CEO, said: "The award of these contracts demonstrates MET's sustained competitiveness in the German local bus market. We continue to see many opportunities for further growth through tendering and acquisition."

Notes to editors:

- Rhein-Main-Verkehrsverbund (RMV) is the regional transport authority for Frankfurt region
- Omnibus Rhein-Nahe GmbH (ORN) is the regional bus subsidiary of Deutsche Bahn Group

ENDS